Nonfiction

Bread is good to eat. We eat many kinds of bread.

Bread is made
mostly from wheat.

Wheat grows on farms.

Farmers harvest
the wheat.

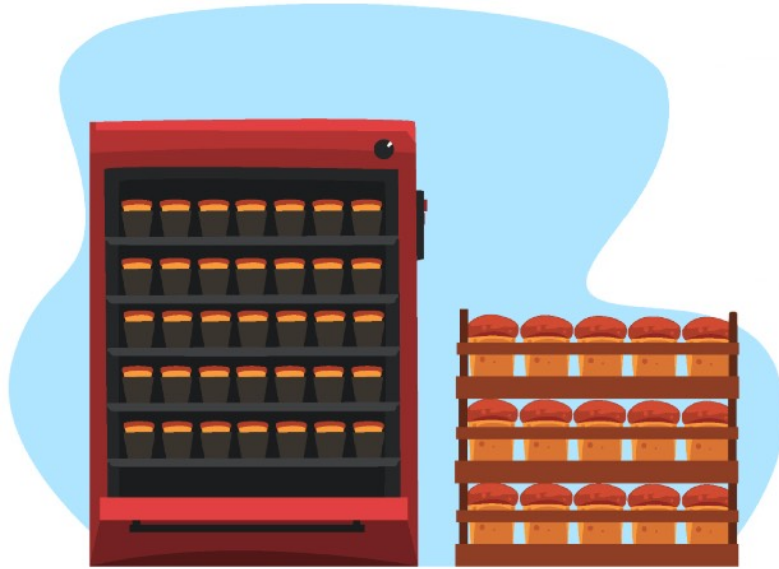

The wheat is
ground into flour.

The flour is put into bags.

The bags of flour
are taken to
bakeries.

The bakeries mix
the flour with other
ingredients and
bake the bread in
ovens.

The bread is taken to stores.

The stores sell
the bread.

It is neat how
bread is made.

Bread is so good
to eat.
